

Die kasachische Nachrichtenagentur „kazinform“ nahm die Unterzeichnung eines Memorandums zum Bau einer Glasfabrik mit in ihren täglichen Newsticker auf.

orm 175910

<http://www.inform.kz/showarticle3.php?lang=eng&id=175910>

TIME 14:21 DATE 09/02/2009

News Commentary Search Photoarchives Contact us

www.inform.kz 06.02.2009 / 21:06

Weekly review. Kazakhstan and Germany are reliable partners. Outcomes of CSTO and EurAsEC sessions. Kazakh Government devaluation measures

Within the Kazakh-German business forum in Berlin a number of documents was signed between business circles of the two countries. Agreement on cooperation and creation of a joint trade and industry chamber and representation office of the chamber in Germany was signed between the trade and industry chambers of Kazakhstan and Germany. The Kazakh Company "Central Logistics GmgH" and German "Thyssen Krupp-Bautechnik und CL" signed a Memo on rendering services and supplies of equipment for exploitation of oil and gas at the Caspian sea. "Kaspy" SEC and "Funke Gruppe" signed a protocol on implementation of the project on construction of plastic construction materials plant. Administration of North Kazakhstan oblast, "TASSTONE" and "DR.Hein Gruppe" signed memorandum of construction of a plant on glass plate production. The volume of investments on this project is EURO 160 mln. Al Farabi Kazakh National University and "Technology Broker Bremen" will tune up cooperation in the sphere of laser technologies. Kazakh company "Petaluxe" plans to implement a project on construction of facing materials plant in Saxony. Kazakh investments will make up EURO 35 million. The Kazakh leader said that the National Welfare Fund "Samruk-Kazyna" in association with "Mackenzie" Consulting Company drew up a list of priority projects that would be proposed to investors. In particular, there are projects in food industry, petrochemistry, transport logistics.